

HAMACON6

ROCKET CITY'S ANIME CONVENTION!

Welcome Everyone!

It's time for the Hamacon times!

HAPPY HAMA CON 6!

Holy Smokes... It's Hamacon time again! We are so excited that you have joined us for what is expected to be the biggest and best Hamacon yet. Our awesome guests this year include Kyle Hebert, Leah Clark, Ayu Sakata, Gregg's Gameshows, Junko Fujiyama and a perennial favorite, Micah Solusod. We also brought back the Anime World Order as well as Vitamin H! They will be doing panels and autograph signings and participating in shenanigans all weekend long.

There are so many fun and cool things to check out Informative panels, tournaments, the dealer's room and artist alley, live action games, concerts, Club Hama dance party, and so much more. Be sure to check the schedule for places and times for all our events. You will have a tough time deciding what to do first!

We are very proud to be hosting the American Red Cross for their annual blood drive on Friday and Saturday. Please check in with the recruiter for info about donating set an appointment. Let's see if we can break our record for units donated this year!

As always, I would like to extend my heartfelt thank you to all of the staff members and volunteers who work very hard to bring Hamacon to life. Without them this event would not happen and we love them for their dedication. I hope you have an amazing time at this year's Hamacon. Now get out there and go have fun!

Sincerely,

Michelle Timon, Convention Chair

Rules of Conduct

Things that you really shouldn't do!

DON'T DO THESE THINGS!

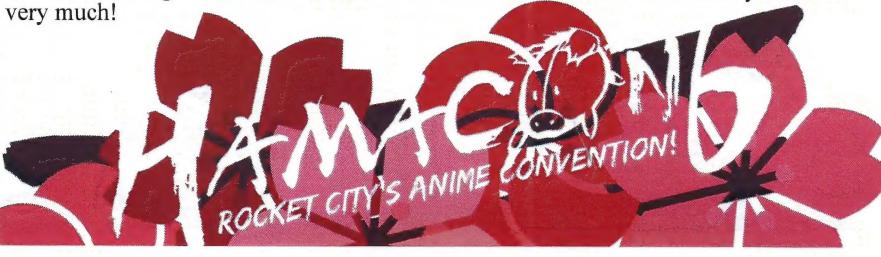

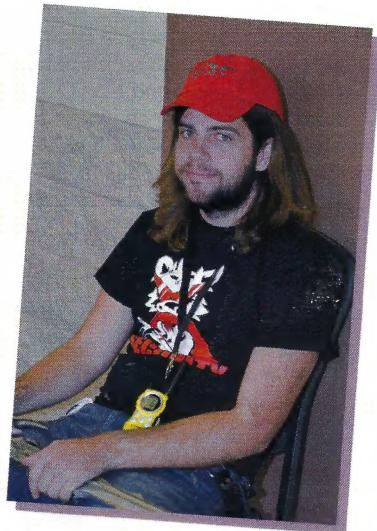

- Loitering in the halls.
- Engaging in disruptive behavior that disturbs the public or staff.
- Making a threat of physical or verbal harassment to a member or members of the public or Hamacon staff.
- Any act that could result in substantial risk or harm to any persons or property.
- The selling of any merchandise out of the convention center, hallways, outside the convention center under any circumstance. We value our dealers, and merchandise is only to be sold, in any form, within the Dealer's Room.
- Sexual misconduct such as, but not limited to indecent exposure, offensive touching, or any form of sexual harassment.
- Engaging in any activity prohibited by Alabama and Madison County law.
- Distribution of any form of literature without written permission by the Hamacon organizers.
- Brandishing any weapon that has not been PEACE BONDED. This includes removing a sword from its casing, or swinging a weapon around.

THAT SAID:

There will be a table set up by Security to have weapons peace bonded.

All registered or unregistered weapons need to follow the laws of Madison County and the state of Alabama.

Also, please remember that you are a guest of the convention and that there are other guests utilizing the same facilities. Always be courteous and do not disturb other guests with excessive noise levels. If the con staff requests that you quiet down or stop a certain behavior, please do so. If you do not, your badge will be confiscated. We are all here to have a good time, so by acting responsibly we can continue to bring events such as an anime convention to Huntsville. Thank you all very much!

Guests

Our guests are down right fierce!

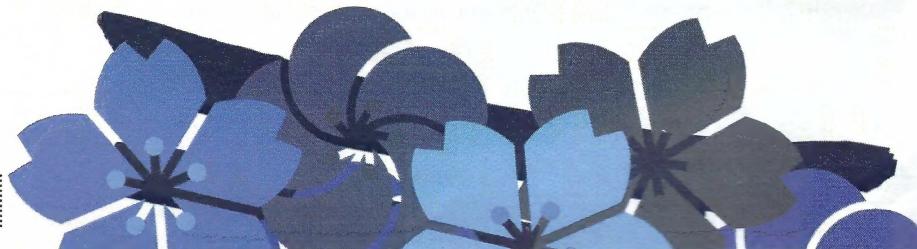

KYLE HEBERT VO ARTIST & PODCASTER

Kyle Hebert is a Los Angeles-based anime and video game voice actor whose credits include Wreck-It Ralph/Street Fighter (Ryu), Naruto (Kiba), Bleach (Aizen, Ganju), League of Legends (Ezreal, Jarvan, and Graves) and Gurren Lagann (Kamina). He is best known as the Narrator and Teen Gohan from the Funimation dub of Dragonball Z.

Other fan faves include Blue Exorcist (Bon Suguro), Fire Emblem Awakening (Frederick, Validar), Fullmetal Alchemist (Vato Falman), Tales of Symphonia (Richter Abend) and Star Ocean (Dias, Arumat, Crow). Kyle can also be heard in numerous popular shows and games, such as Pokemon (Professor Oak in "Origins"), Digimon (Ballistamon and Dorulumon in "Fusion"), Sonic (Big the Cat in "Colors"), Final Fantasy (Nimbus in "Type-0"), World of Warcraft (Algalon the Observer in "Lich King", Skylanders, Devil May Cry, Dynasty Warriors, Soul Calibur and Resident Evil.

He is also the voice of filmmaker, Kevin Smith's Smodco Internet Radio and cohosts "The Big Bald Broadcast" geek news podcast for that network. For more info, visit www.kylehebert.com.

Leah Clark is a Random Force Of Nature working as a voice actress and script adapter for FUNimation Entertainment and voice artist for DuArt Films. She has also worked as a director for FUNimation as well as a stage actress in the Dallas-Ft Worth TX area.

Some of her most memorable voice roles include Nodoka in Negima; Suzuka in Suzuka; Rin in Toriko; Fuyuki in Sgt Frog; Blair in Soul Eater; Minatsuki in Deadman Wonderland; Saki in Eden of the East; Nora in Spice and Wolf; Minami in Baka and Test; Jiji in Princess Jellyfish; Noah in Full Metal Alchemist—Conqueror of Shamballa; Coby and Miss Doublefinger in One Piece; Paris in Shin Chan; Eri in School Rumble; Maron in Dragonball GT; Carlita in Pokemon the Movie: Black/White—Victini and Reshiram; and Maru in XXXHolic.

Some of Leah's script works include Panty & Stocking With Garterbelt, Suzuka, Peach Girl, Sasami—Magical Girl Club, Baka and Test, Strike Witches, and her all-time favorite, B Gata H Kai/Yamada's First Time.

As a Director, Leah has worked on Sasami—Magical Girl Club, Tower of Druaga, STRAIN, Case Closed (movies) Captured In Her Eyes and Countdown To Heaven, and Shuffle. Leah is also a producer and co-host of The Red Wine Therapist podcast also featuring voice actress Jad Saxton. The show is an interactive open, raw, educational, and hilarious discussion of life, love, wine and (ahem) other stuff.

Leah would find it oh so magical and lovely if you would keep up with her on Twitter and Facebook:

With only the freshest Tokyo smiles!

Despite his ponytail and general inability to fly, Micah Solusod is a professional voice actor and artist. Or so they say...

The rascal made his debut in the anime world as Malek Werner in Blassreiter and is best known for his role as Soul Evans in Soul Eater. He has since shown up in other FUNimation titles as Toma Kamijo in A Certain Magical Index and A Certain Scientific Railgun, Gai Tsutugami in Guilty Crown, Midnight in Fairy Tail, older Ame in Wolf Children, teen Coby in One Piece, Bea in Toonami's Space Dandy, Mizuki in Kamisama Kiss, Rei Ogami in Code:Breaker, Ao Fukai in Eureka Seven AO, Miyuki Sagara in Red Data Girl, Tsutomu Senkawa in Birdy the Mighty: Decode, Yukitaka Tsuitsui in Level E, Jonah Mar in Jormungand, and most recently, Kazuki Minami in Free! Eternal Summer.

Micah also makes appearances in the Jisei series (visual novel), Backstage Pass (otome game), Borderlands 2 (VG), Borderlands: The Pre-Sequel (VG), Cryamore (VG), Atari's Centipede: Infestation (VG), and Tome: Terrain of Magical Expertise (web series). It's likely he's done more but who's counting?

When he's not busy making up "professional" voice acting tips on Twitter, Micah works as a freelance artist. He is currently the lead illustrator for the fantasy webcomic Ties That Bind and can be found on deviantART (or anywhere else on the internet) under the username "maioceaneyes". Believe it.

Ayu writes visual novels, then people play them. Usually in that order. As head of sakevisual, she's written the award-winning Jisei murder mystery series, and the otome game Backstage Pass.

You can also hear her voice in various anime dubs and video games including Fairy Tail (Laki), Robotics;Notes (Airi/Gezi), A Certain Scientific Railgun S (Kinuhata), and A Hat in Time (Hat Kid). When she's not writing or voice acting, she keeps busy drinking tea and reading comics.

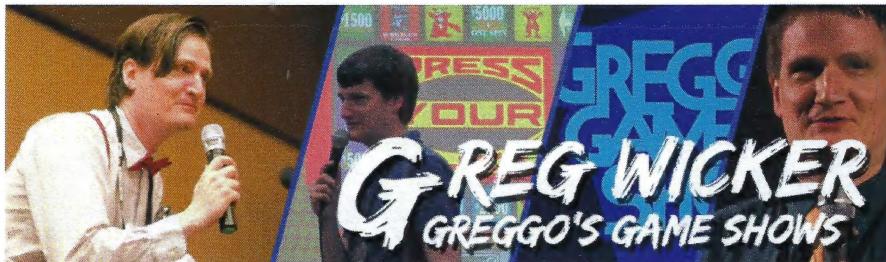

Follow her twitter @soymilkpudding for stupid jokes, nerdy commentary, and too many food pictures.

These game shows are no gamble!

Greg Wicker (or “Greggo” as he’s fondly known) has been producing and hosting game shows at anime conventions since 1999, when he premiered Anime Match Game at Project A-Kon in Dallas. Since then, Greggo has done anime-themed versions of several classic game shows, created a few games of his own, and even had an original project that very nearly turned into an actual television show on Anime Network.

These days Greggo is concentrating on perfecting his craft and making game shows available for conventions everywhere, bringing his rapier wit and friendly personality with him wherever he goes. You can see some of Greggo’s past game show efforts on his YouTube page at <http://www.youtube.com/gregdasgo> or visit his website at <http://www.facebook.com/greggogameshows>.

Cosfluff101 started out as a video rant against those who didn’t believe that cosplay was for everyone all the way back in 2008. That video flooded with likes and comments of thanks for inspiration. It was those comments that prompted Cosfluff’s founder to take to conventions and begin running a panel all about it.

Although it began as an instructional panel helping those of a “fluffier persuasion” learn to make costuming work for them, it has since branched out into discussing con bullies and acceptance of all races in cosplay. The three heads of this group, Panda and Radiance Murphy and Caroline Aberthany hold the belief that cosplay should be for all no matter one’s size, gender, or race. Together they convention hop and spread their word: “Cosplay is for Everyone: Especially You.”

You can check out their facebook page at www.facebook.com/Cosfluff101.

In 2005, a trio of anime fandom's nerdiest had the bright idea to start audio podcasting... the same year that YouTube launched. Oh sure, streaming Internet video reshaped our concepts of the Internet/celebrity/fandom/etc whereas syndicated on-demand audio became the realm of already-famous celebrities, but they're still at it and are fine with the fact that their winning the Parsec Award for "Best Anime Podcast" caused the category to be permanently retired.

In the meantime, Daryl Surat and Gerald Rathkolb continue to write, lecture, and do A/V presentations on Japanese animation, comics, pop culture, and general insanity for a variety of magazines, fanzines, websites, academia, DVD commentary tracks... And conventions like this one! Oh, and check out www.animeworldorder.com, too.

Vitamin H Productions is the professional panelist group that has been sweeping the South. Founded in 2013 by Kidd "The Maniac" Bowyer and Ryan "Pathos" Prime and fueled by a love of all things geeky, Vitamin H aims to create the most memorable convention programming you've ever experienced.

They've appeared at dozens of conventions all across the nation, bringing a wildly diverse array of content that is both educational AND entertaining. From ancient history to tacky B-movies, from obscure gaming treasures to nostalgic anime and fandoms that you don't normally see at conventions, Vitamin H tackles every subject with an unbelievable amount of passion, energy, and professionalism – no dull stock-template PowerPoints or monotone delivery here!

If you're looking for the cure for con boredom, then you need your daily dose of Vitamin H. Check out their website: <http://vitaminh.info>

Musical Guests

Musical mastery and more!

Junko Fujiyama is a Japanese singer/songwriter who performs all over the United States. She has worked with several bands as the lead singer and has also become a solo performer.

Junko has performed at various cultural events (such as Japan Fest Atlanta, National Cherry Blossom Festival in DC), anime conventions, music festivals, and music clubs. She started piano when she was five. She also sang in a chorus when she was a child and learned how to sing in many different genres like pop, rock, children's songs, and even Enka (Japanese traditional folk). Junko's original songs can be described as J-rock and J-pop blended together. They are powerful, delicate and intriguing. She also covers J-pop/rock and anime themed songs, adding some American pop flavor to make them even sweeter!

Check out more of her work and info at <http://www.reverbnation.com/junkomusic>

The best DJs? Only at Club Hama!

Math teacher by day and musician by night, Bill Shillito, better known as DM Ashura, has been producing music for over ten years. Starting off by making fan remixes of Dance Dance Revolution songs, he has honed his musical skills over the years, and his energetic sound has helped him build an audience worldwide through an ever-growing number of venues. He has to his credit many songs in not only both American and Japanese versions of DDR, working with artists such as Veronica from Smile.DK and even Bemani veteran and AWA guest Kors K, but also Konami's beatmaniaIIDX and most recently Andamiro's Pump It Up. He has been featured on compilations like "J-Rave Nation" by S2TB Recording, gained a following in the TechPara dance scene worldwide, and even revamped the soundtracks of Rockin Android's hit bullet-hell games GundeadliGne and Gundemonium Re:collection for their Steam re-release.

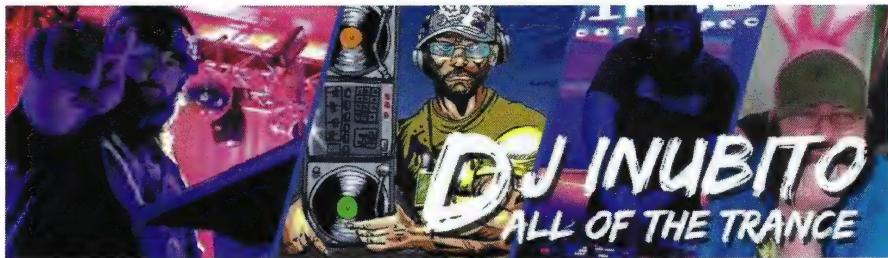

Daniel Cornelison AKA Klastic is a Programmer, Producer, Dj and Entrepreneur from Huntsville AL. He also is the founder of Industrial Parasite, a Digital Media Publisher of music, games, anime, manga, and art as well as an up coming social hub for the cultures. He is honorably discharge veteran of the United States Army serving in Iraq in 2011 as and IT Specialist for 1/20th Special Forces Group.

His first interaction with music was in middle school band where he played the clarinet. Jumping into the digital age of music he first started producing in FL studios then moved to Sonar X1 and now his DAW of choice is Ableton Live 9. Through his years of daily computer use, video game playing and travel Klastic has developed a wide range, taste and style in the music that he produces and plays at his shows.

In 2006 Klastic, along with Supernumeria, founded Industrial Parasite. At the time IP was an Xbox live clan and publishing group producing videos recorded in Halo 2. After the Halo 2 community started to dissipate IP did as well. In 2013 Klastic revived IP but this time as an Electronic Music label. Two years later he expanded its content to include games, anime, manga (graphic novels) and art.

The best DJs? Only at Club Hama!

DJ Inubito started funkling around with music back in 1998 when he started thumbing on a bass guitar. In 2003, he then transitioned into DJing trance and hardcore EDM as his interest in the party scene grew. When just mixing music wasn't enough, he began producing in 2007, jumping headfirst into the nerdcore genre with the group Computer Science Hardcore. He also produced geek centric EDM with Dou(Gai) Jin Recordings alongside artists like Cynispin and Katsuhiko Jinnai. Currently he spins with several southeast based groups such as Dead Terrorist DJs, Sound Off DJs, and JABKI Bass All Stars. He also has been heavily involved in some of the largest dance parties in north Alabama (including Hamacon's own "Club HAMA") as well as providing local support for major Drum and Bass artists such as Q-bik and Gridlok.

Having spun across the Southeast, at conventions like Anime Weekend Atlanta, Middle Tennessee Anime Convention, Seishun-Con, and more. DJ Inubito knows how to rock the dance floor like none other, with trance, hardcore, drum and bass, breaks, and only the filthiest electro house under his vinyl. When you come to hear DJ Inubito spin, you cannot help but jump in and dance. His latest EP, "Retrofit" is available for free download through Industrial Parasite Records.

You can find out more on his Facebook page, or at <http://www.djinubito.com>!

One of the things I really like as a fan is to see the community, or realize that I'm not the only one that likes something, but it also makes me realize that I'm not alone. I also enjoyed the conversation of course.
Hamacon is also recognized as the convention of choice.
My wife and I have been to several anime cons and I think that after about 10 years most are dead.
HAMA CON
Everyone has an amazing weekend.

ALL VOICE-OVER ARTIST GUESTS ON DECK Q&A

Here's your chance to ask one last question before our guests head home to make more voices for shows we love! Kyle, Leah, Ayu, and Micah are all here and they want to hear from you!

AMV CONTEST (HAMA CON DIRECTORS)

WANTED: YOU to help vote for the best Anime Music Videos & Cosplay Music Videos. Swing on by and help us pick the winners!

Events are listed in alphabetical order

ANIME AND ALSO MANGA INDUSTRY PANEL (ONLY THE FINEST IN NAVEL GAZING EXPERTS!)

Because let's face it, you can't have a proper anime con without a proper talking about the anime and manga industry panel. We have assembled only the finest navel gazers in the land, along with at least one person that knows what they are talking about for the occasion. This is the panel of Truth.

CLOSING CEREMONIES (HAMA CON DIRECTORS)

Well, it's been fun folks. Been great. Just really good. The best. But sometimes, you just gotta close out the con and start packing things away. But stick with us for just one last event. So can see this con off, together... Until we get band back together for HAMA6!

CLUB HAMA PRESENTS: THE HAMA6 RAVE (HAMA CON DJS)

It's that time again! Time to dance your butt off. Resident DJs Inubito and Klastic are here playing the music you love, and there's also our special guest DJ, DM Ashura

GOOD MORNING HAMA CON! (THE BASIL & ADAM ACTION DUO)
ZZZZZZZZ... Whoa! Hey! People are here?! ALREADY? Geez, we don't know what to do... I mean, we just started! Are all the chairs in place? Have we plugged everything in? Phew! Well, you are more than welcome to come hang out with us and get all the things in their proper places.

GREAT ANIME OPENINGS (ANIME WORLD ORDER)

You read the title, right? Congratulations! You know what this panel is about: the fact that one of the best things about anime is the openings. The Anime World Order podcast will take you through some of the great openings in anime: old, new, some you've seen, and maybe even something brand new to you that will spark an interest in checking it out. Come cheer on your favorites! Wait...why do people cheer for openings...?

GREGGO PRESENTS ANIME PASSWORD (GREGGO'S GAME SHOWS)

Two teams of one contestant and one celebrity guest attempt to convey secret passwords to each other. The passwords become part of a puzzle that the team must then solve to win the game!

GREGGO PRESENTS ANIME PRESS YOUR LUCK (GREGGO'S GAME SHOWS)

Three players answer questions to earn spins on our big board! During the spin round, players attempt to stop the flashing lights on the board so that they land on a space that contains money or prizes while attempting to avoid landing on the spaces that contain Whammies. Landing on a Whammy causes the player to lose everything! The player that finishes with the highest total keeps everything they've earned.

GREGGO PRESENTS THE POKEMON GAME SHOW (GREGGO'S GAME SHOWS)

Four players battle each other in a test of knowledge about all things Pokemon! Answering questions correctly gives them control of our game board where they will face all sorts of challenges! The winner has a shot at becoming immortalized as Champion of the con!

HAMAICON6 COSPLAY CONTEST (HAMAICON DIRECTORS)

Oh ho. Well what do we have here? Once again, SOMEONE forgot... AGAIN to file their Cosplay Contest panel description before the Program Guide was finalized. I bet they would rather I write in things like, "Come join us for a parade of costumes. Each contestant has worked hard on their costume and is now ready to show it off!" or something about how you can even vote for a fan favorite. BUT NO. They don't GET THAT. Instead, what was up with that Women's World Cup USA versus Sweden game?! Geez, zero to zero. We need some scores! Some point goals! Just dribble that ball in between the goal thingies and get it done. AM I right?! Oh, and to enter you must attend pre-judging, which will be held earlier in the day. If you want to enter as an exhibitionist then please see your Cosplay Director during pre-judging. And then tell her she needs to write these things up sooner! OR ELSE.

HAMAICON6 COSPLAY CONTEST Q & A (HAMAICON DIRECTORS)

Stay after the show and ask us who, what, where, when, and why. Our Cosplay judges will be there to answer any questions you have following the show.

SHORT ANIME: 15 MINUTES OR LESS (ANIME WORLD ORDER)

With so much media and so little time, introducing new fans to anime is becoming harder than ever. Among existing fans the “first volume test” and “3 episode test” has given way to the “1 episode test”...if that! Sound like your life? Fear not, for there IS a solution: short anime! Daryl Surat of Otaku USA Magazine and the Anime World Order podcast (<http://www.animeworldorder.com>) has assembled an introductory collection of “bite-sized” Japanese animated works, ranging from artistic anthology pieces to surreal comedies and original animated music videos. If you want to see the widest variety of what anime has to offer in the shortest amount of time, this is the way to do it.

SOUL 2 SOUL - MICAH SOLUSOD Q&A (MICAH SOLUSOD)

Come by and chat with Micah about what it's like working in the 2D world. From voice acting to freelance artwork, Micah will take all of your questions and maybe even answer some.

THE ANIME TORTURE CHAMBER

(JOHN ROBBINS, CHAINSAW BUFFET) AGES 16+

Join the Chainsaw Buffet podcast on a harrowing journey through some of the most awful, disturbing, and insane productions ever brought to life. Nothing can prepare you for the horrors that lie within.

THE KEY PANEL (KERRY PRUETT, JARED JOHNSON)

A brief overview of the history of anime/visual novel company Key and the series they have brought about. Come for an introduction to the Key fandom and be introduced to several unforgettable stories.

THE PAIN TRAIN (BASIL BERCHEKAS III, OSMCAST!) AGES 16+

It's the crazy clip show extravagance that hasn't been this insane since the last time you checked the internet! Look upon the wild, wide, and wacky videos being thrown at you one after another until you are bursting with laughter, traumatized, or possibly both at the SAME TIME.

UP-NEXT CONCERT! (UP-NEXT)

Up-Next is a self-proclaimed “pretty good” basement rock band hailing from Huntsville and are quickly gaining in popularity. Up-Next is committed to providing high-energy shows, think loud and fast. Up-Next will have your socks thoroughly rocked. You should come see them!

A BRIEF HISTORY OF FIGHTING GAMES IN ANIME (JOHN ROBBINS, CHAINSAW BUFFET)

Join the Chainsaw Buffet podcast as they take you on a guided tour through the annals of anime and fighting game history. Relive the best (and worst) moments from the many adaptations that the most popular games of the genre inspired through the years.

ANIME AND MANGA IN THE DIGITAL AGE (BASIL BERCHEKAS III, OSMCAST!)

Anime isn't just discs anymore, and manga isn't just books! Nowadays, with the advent of smart phones, tablets, Rokus, and other ways of streaming stuff, there are more ways to get your anime and manga fix than ever before! There are, in fact, so many you may have not heard of them all. But we know about most of them, and can tell you where they are and what they're good for.

STUPID VIDEO PANEL OF DOOM (ANIME WORLD ORDER) AGES 16+

Since the era of VHS, the glue of anime fandom was watching weird videos that are most likely offensive, hopefully funny, probably violent, and possibly even related to Japanese pop culture. Daryl Surat of the Anime World Order podcast (<http://www.animeworldorder.com>) has prepared two hours of mind-melting stupidity he's amassed from the ends of old tapes combined with newly-unearthed horrors of film, television, and yes, Internet.

TAKESHI MIIKE BITES THE WORLD (VITAMIN H PRODUCTIONS)

The mad genius behind Ichi the Killer and Audition has directed everything from low-budget pulp thrillers to skin-crawling horror, yakuza dramas to video game adaptations and even a handful of kids' films! This freeform panel explores the style and incredible diversity of Miike-san's vast filmography and allows audiences to choose what clips they want to see - from disturbing torture to hilarious insanity and everything in between.

HOLLIS AND ADAM READ EROFICTION TO EACH OTHER WHILE GAZING LONGINGLY INTO EACH OTHER'S EYES AND FACE (TWEEDLE DEE AND TWEEDLE AWESOME) AGES 18+

Their eyes met. He didn't have to say anything, but it was clear on his face: Adam had grown too anxious to run his self indulgent panel the way he had before, since the beginning. Hollis breathed in, setting his senses ablaze with the gravity of the situation. He followed him into the room, ever trusting. Hollis would always trust Adam, no matter what. Even in this, when all his intuition warned him, screamed at him to avoid the danger inside. 18+

KILL LA KILL: SPOT THE REFERENCES, BEGINNERS EDITION (ANIME WORLD ORDER)

The makers of Gurren Lagann, Ninja Slayer, and Inferno Cop went and did it again, producing a hit modern series that, while reverential to the past, wasn't bound to it. Once again there are plenty of "Easter egg" references to classic Japanese animation and pop culture that, while unnecessary to understanding what you're seeing, can enhance your viewing or lead you to discover new favorites. Daryl Surat of Otaku USA Magazine and the Anime World Order podcast (<http://www.animeworldorder.com>) won't have time to point out everything, but he'll do his best regardless. NOTE: minor spoilers.
